Rules

RULE 32: PLAYOFF PROCEDURES

- A. The match format for all playoff games shall be the same as that of regularly scheduled League play for that particular Division.
- B. Scorekeeping - Each team will furnish a scorekeeper in accordance with League rules.
- C. Referee - A Referee will be appointed by the Board for each playoff match. This referee will be a member of the CSDL Board or a CSDL general member designated by the Board and shall have ABSOLUTE AUTHORITY to preside over and control the match.
- D. For all playoff matches, the team with the better record hosts the match at their location.
- E. During the playoffs, the first team to 6 wins in A division and 16 wins in AA and Masters ends the match.
- F. Special rule for the Masters and AA leagues, for the final playoff, the 2 teams will play 2 out of 3 matches starting with the team with the better record's home location, then the other team's location and if necessary the last match will be played at the first location.

RULE 33: DUTIES OF THE REFEREE

- A. The referee will have a set of current League Rules and by-laws at the match.
- B. Prior to the match he/she will introduce himself/herself to both team Captains.
- C. The Referee will inspect the dartboard, lighting, scoreboard, and throwing line, assuring that the playing conditions are acceptable to both Captains.

D. The Referee will check the position of the person verifying the score, making sure that person can see the scoreboard and NOT be a distraction to the players.

E. The Referee will check the score sheet with both teams Captains, making sure it is properly filled out.

F. The Referee will allow one (1) player from each team to act as coach during the play-off match. The coach for each team will be identified to the Referee prior to the match. An alternate coach may be designated when the primary coach is throwing in a game.

G. The Referee will start the first game of the match by flipping a coin and asking the home team to call the coin.

H. During match play, the Referee is to take the role of a representative of the Rules Committee. The Referee will adjudicate between the 2 captains when there is a disagreement.
